ADDITIONAL FORMS

- 1) The School Reference Form (found at the end of this document) needs to be forwarded to your current Primary School to be filled in by the Classroom Teacher – the Primary School will forward this to us.
- 2) Remember to attach an Enrolment Form.
 - a. If you live within the catchment boundary please use an IN AREA Enrolment Form.
 - b. If you live outside of the catchment boundary please use an OUT OF AREA Application Form. (Refer to the boundary map on our website to determine whether your application for enrolment will be IN AREA or OUT OF AREA.

<http://www.leeming.wa.edu.au/enrolment/> . You can also refer to the schools online link: <https://www.det.wa.edu.au/schoolsonline/home.do>)

The Department of Education and Training has designated Leeming Senior High School as a local intake area school. Under the School Education Regulations 2000 that specify enrolment priorities, guarantee is for every student to have a place at a school based on their usual place of residence. Enrolment decisions in public schools are made according to criteria based on age, resident location, visa status and educational needs.

Our three local Primary Schools are Leeming, West Leeming and Banksia Park. If your child is attending one of these local schools and their usual place of residence is not in the local intake area, your application will be an OUT OF AREA application.
