

Leeming Senior High School Culture of Communication

Communication is the process of passing information and understanding from one person to another.

School to Home

General School information via electronic means

Two formal reports per year. No surprises.

Letters of commendations and/or concern

Phone calls when a more detailed discussion is required

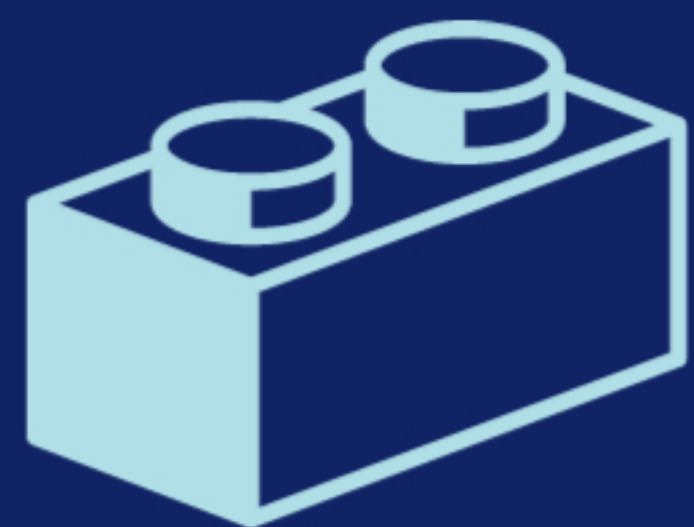

Home to School

Email

Phone call

Visit to reception (Parents asked to schedule meetings)

Progress Reports

Absences

Electronic Communications

Connect

Open Communications, respect, fairness and positive relationships are valued and promoted.