

MINI CAREERS EXPO AND COURSE INFORMATION EVENING WEDNESDAY 20 JULY

List of stalls/ Presenters

Ignite:

Ignite Community Network is a disability services provider. Ignite promotes a person-centred approach to service delivery to individuals living with a disability across the Perth Metropolitan area. They ensure that the person with a disability is in control of decision making in relation to goals, service delivery and the team that will deliver the service.

MacMahons:

MacMahons is a diversified contractor with leading capabilities in surface and underground mining, civil construction and resources engineering. They have extensive work experience, apprenticeship and graduate opportunities in both trades and professions involved with mining and engineering.

Civmec: (presenting E 3)

Civmec is a leading provider of end to end engineering services with a focus on several sectors including: Energy, infrastructure, resources, marine and defence. With a recent 10 year contract building boats in WA, they have a huge number of opportunities and their own RTO onsite for any apprenticeships or additional learning.

NIT:

The National Institute of Technology Australia is an RTO specialising in courses in ICT and business technology. With a wide range of diplomas and advanced diplomas available in the expanding industry, they also have direct arrangements with and pathways into universities.

Stanley College:

Stanley College is an RTO specialising in a number of different areas including commercial cookery, business, health and community services and ICT. With a number of different campus locations and industry partnerships, the college is accessible and provides clear pathways.

BAE:

BAE systems is the Australian branch of a British company which specialises in defence capability and systems. As a company they cover systems in the air, land and sea. They have a significant intake each year of graduates and apprentices.

ATC:

The Apprenticeship and Traineeship Company is a multifaceted organisation operating as a group training organisation, a labour hire company and a registered training organisation. They are one of the largest employers of youth in Western Australia and work to place young people into appropriate traineeship or apprenticeship positions. They cover several areas including engineering, construction, hospitality, childcare, retail, business, horticulture and veterinary nursing.

Aegis:

Aegis is the largest privately owned residential aged care provider in Western Australia. With a variety of different locations and types of positions, they can provide extensive opportunities for developing experience in the aged care sector which is predicted to be one of the fastest growing industries of the future with a growth average per year of 2.8% since 2017

Austal:

Austal is one of Australia's global shipbuilders, Austal builds custom commercial and defence vessels, specialising in the use of aluminium to ensure they are lightweight and manoeuvrable. the company offers both graduate entry into a number of roles including maritime engineering, design, construction, technical services and sustainment and marketing.

Brick and Block Careers:

Brick and Block Careers is a not for profit organisation helping young Australians to explore and pursue careers in brick and block laying. they run a number of programs to inform on and experience the world of bricklaying as well as setting up work experience, connecting potential apprentices with employers and supporting training.

IGNITE

Supporting families navigate the National Disability Insurance Scheme.

Further Education Stalls

Apprenticeship Training Centre
Curtin University
Edith Cowan University
Murdoch University
National Institute of Technology (NIT)
Notre Dame University
Police (Information Stall only)
South Metro TAFE / Jobs and Skills Training Centre
Stanley College
University of WA